

How can you begin to or enhance a coordinated approach to collaboration with the Office of Disability Services and Counseling Services to support students with disabilities for participation and success in education abroad?

In what ways can you support students with disabilities to create community while abroad, in their placements with host families (if applicable) and countries, writ large?

What education abroad programs in your cadre of course listings are accessible for students with disabilities, i.e., those with physical or mental disabilities, be specific?