Instructor's Biography & Profile

Tara Michael

Co-Founder & Director of Institutional Relationships
Global Players, Study Abroad for Student-Athletes

Michael is a former Division I student-athlete (Women's Lacrosse) who studied abroad in Namibia and South Africa after tearing her ACL in college. Michael went on to play and coach in Australia, England, Germany, and the Czech Republic before settling in the Netherlands where she now resides and coaches the Dutch U19 and Women's Senior National Teams. Global Players was founded in 2008 specifically for student-athletes with athletic programming to complement academic coursework and professional internships.
