

What did you glean as a key learning about the Indian education system (K-12) that you plan to leverage in your work with Indian international students?

What topics would you like to include during pre-departure orientation sessions to avoid pitfalls later on?

In what ways can you create “safety nets” for Indian international students so that they may better cope in their new home in the United States?